Enchanted Forest Character Bios

RUNE

Age: 20
Loves: Glitter
Dislikes: Uncombed hair

Rune loves to run long distances as fast as she can, and always with a smile. She never has a hair out of place on her silver mane and always looks sparkly good. What the other creatures don't know is that she wakes up at 4am every morning and it takes her 3 hours to comb her mane and tail and re-apply her glitter so she sparkles all over.

EIRINA OLARIS

Age: 18
Loves: Travelling
Dislikes: Staying in one place

Eirina wants to see the world! Not content with staying in the enchanted forest where she was born, she spends her time dreaming of all the places she could visit. She's already ventured to the Misty Mountains where she made friends with Dewdrop the Yeti, and to the Strongmeadow Falls where she learned the secrets of its magic water, and she wants more! She's currently planning a trip to the Blainsor Grotto to observe the art of the Mountain Elves.

BEEBO PRICKLES

Age: 14
Loves: Gardening
Dislikes: Caterpillars

Beebo's pride and joy is his garden. He grows beautiful flowers and the tastiest veggies for miles around. However, he's currently in a battle with some pesky caterpillars who also love his vegetables, sneaking into the garden when he's not looking and eating as much as they can. If you hear a cry of exasperation reverberating through the forest, don't be alarmed! It's just Beebo trying to chase the caterpillars out of his veggie patch!

CAIBA HOOTS

Age: 112
Loves: Watching
Dislikes: Basically anyone under the age of 20

"Get off the grass," "don't touch that," "turn down that racket" and "don't make me tell you again" are probably Caiba's favourite phrases to yell at the kids as they walk past his tree. Every day without fail he will be on his branch watching those horrible young ones to make sure they don't step foot on his lawn. He doesn't actually own a lawn, or any land for that matter, but it won't stop him from yelling at the kids for something to do!

GORG MERRYBEARD

Age: 82
Loves: Eating
Dislikes: Cooking

Lock up your snacks when Gorg is around because he looooooves food! He has a special weakness for raspberry muffins, and always makes sure to walk past Beebo Prickles' house in the hope that he has been baking. Last week, he helped himself to some lemon meringue pie from Beebo's kitchen table and tried to sneak away but Beebo caught him red-handed. Oh Gorg! Maybe if you help with the dishes, Beebo won't mind you having a taste!

DAVE

Age: 2
Loves: Rhyming
Dislikes: Words that are difficult to rhyme

Dave loves poetry and always speaks in rhyme. Sometimes it's difficult to find words to rhyme with what he wants to say so he just makes words up. This confuses the other creatures who find it hard to understand what he's talking about. He has a song or poem for every occasion and loves performing his latest compositions. However, the other creatures don't always welcome these performances which can sometimes be really, really long!

STAR

Age: 10
Loves: Singing
Dislikes: Loud noises

If you hear the sound of a sweet voice drifting through the enchanted forest, chances are it's Star. Star loves to sing and has a silvery voice that sounds like bells ringing. Her song will captivate you but be careful! If you listen for too long, it will make you fall into a deep sleep. The forest creatures have learnt this the hard way, and now put earplugs in when she starts singing so they don't fall asleep.

HELVERT

Age: 267
Loves: Rubies
Dislikes: Talking about his ears

Helvert is obsessed with rubies. In his spare time, he hikes into the mountains and spends days at a time mining the secret caves he finds there for the precious jewel. He believes that rubies will bring him luck. His little house is decorated from floor to ceiling with them. He is very tall for a dwarf and likes to boast about it as often as he can, even to those who are much taller than he is but doesn't like talking about his ears as he thinks they stick out.

SQUIBBLE

Age: 17
Loves: Her family
Dislikes: Having a quiet house

Squibble is from a BIG family. She has 17 brothers and sisters. During the holidays, the forest will be overrun with members of Squibble's family, who all come to see her for a party. Squibble's family throws the best parties, with plenty of acorn fizzy, elderflower stew and blueberry pie to enjoy, and they always finish the night with a spectacular display of synchronised tree jumping that all the other creatures of the forest come to see.

MAGMA

Age: 6

Loves: Breathing fire

Dislikes: Making his bed

Magma's favourite thing to do is breathe fire. His mother tells him off all the time for it because he doesn't think before he breathes. In the last month, he has set fire to the bramble patch, Beebo Prickles' favourite Mirage Pear tree, and Gorg Merrybeard's beard. Magma's mother is at her wit's end, and says the next time he sets something on fire, he'll be grounded for a month.

SHADOW

Age: 11

Loves: Slinking around

Dislikes: Water

Shadow is a charismatic wolf known for his charming personality. However, he has one weakness - he talks in his sleep, and sometimes admits embarrassing things at night! When Shadow isn't busy talking in his sleep, he loves to explore the forest. He has a keen sense of smell and can sniff out a good adventure from miles away. If you're ever lost in the enchanted forest, keep an ear out for Shadow's sleep-talking. You never know what secrets he might reveal in his dreams!

SPROKIT

Age: 17

Loves: Fixing things

Dislikes: Cabbage

Meet Sprokit - the handyman of the enchanted forest. He is a skilled craftsman who is always ready with a helpful paw and a witty quip. Whether it's building a new treehouse for the squirrel family or fixing the bridge that the trolls destroyed, Sprokit is always up for the challenge. Sprokit's humor is contagious and he always knows how to lighten the mood. His quick wit and puns never fail to make his friends laugh. When he's not busy fixing things, Sprokit can be found lounging in his hammock, dreaming up his next big project.

SAIRA GLITTERHEART

Age: 129

Loves: Jokes

Dislikes: Creatures with no sense of humour

Saira loves to make mischief. One of her favourite things to do is to confuse humans that pass through the enchanted forest, getting them lost, tricking them or sprinkling her fairy dust on them so that they suddenly levitate in the air. If you're walking through the woods and suddenly smell freshly baked brownies, be careful - that's a sign that Saira is nearby!

ARAMOG

Age: 262

Loves: Wrestling

Dislikes: Butterflies

Aramog is big and tough and loves to wrestle the other large creatures of the forest for fun. But he has one weakness - he's terrified of butterflies. He can't admit this to anyone else because he's got his reputation as a tough guy to uphold, so he does everything possible to keep it a secret. He's doing a good job because no one is onto him yet!

BIRCHBEARD

Age: 837

Loves: Telling stories, sleeping

Dislikes: Those who don't listen

Birchbeard is the wise old man of the enchanted forest. The forest creatures love to hear his stories of days gone by, and he is a captivating storyteller. However, there's just one problem - Birchbeard always falls asleep in the middle of the story. Sometimes the creatures will gently nudge him awake to hear the end of the story, but other times they let him sleep. After all, Birchbeard is an old tree and he deserves to rest!

BOOF

Age: 16

Loves: Hiding

Dislikes: Being found

Is it a bird? Is it a plane? Nah, it's just Boof again. If you need him, you can't find him and if you don't need him, he won't leave you alone. You can always rely on never being able to get anything done with Boof on your team.

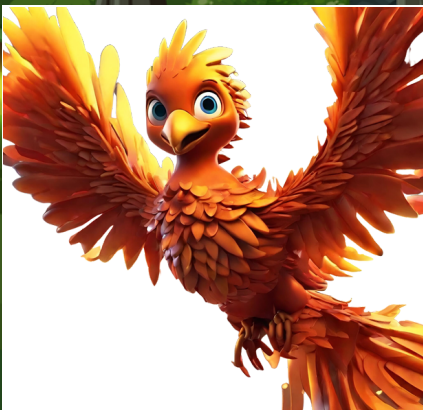

ILLARION GWYNN

Age: 117

Loves: Playing his enchanted flute

Dislikes: Heights

Illarion is the lightkeeper of the enchanted forest, responsible for managing the balance of light and dark. He is a kind and gentle elf, always looking out for the wellbeing of the forest and its inhabitants. If you walk through the forest, keep an ear out for the sound of his enchanted flute. Its magical melodies have the power to soothe creatures and bring peace to the forest.

ASH

Age: 231

Loves: Showing off

Dislikes: Anything that cramps his style

Ash is a phoenix with a personality as fiery as his feathers. He's known for his cheeky sense of humor and penchant for getting into trouble. He loves to play pranks on the other creatures, often teaming up with Saira Glitterheart to make mischief. His antics are the stuff of legend, and he's always the life of the party. If you ever find yourself in need of a good laugh, just look for Ash - he's sure to brighten your day!
