Robots

PIXELS

Name: Pixels
Model: Ha-ha 21
Planet of Origin: Joviality
Age: 7
Special abilities: making people laugh

Pixel is a comedian robot, who is programmed to make people laugh. As well as having a database of the best jokes in the galaxy, he also expels laughing gas (although people think he is farting) which makes his audiences laugh so hard they snort.

HALPIE

Name: Halpie
Model: Ruff 13
Planet of Origin: Barkus
Age: 1
Special abilities: Fetch

Halpie is one of the most popular Ruff robots in the universe. Kids of all ages have Ruffs as pets, and love to play with them. Although dogs are supposed to hate cats, Halpie's secret is that she is actually best friends with her owner's cat, and they love to nap together when everyone is out of the house.

E.V.A.

Name: E.V.A
Model: Cupid 15
Planet of Origin: Lurblee
Age: 12
Special abilities: Making chocolates

E.V.A. stands for Extraordinary Valentine Agent. Her job is to help people prepare extra-special Valentine's Day surprises for their super-secret crushes. From quiet picnics to giant balloon displays in the sky, E.V.A. can do it all. She will make Valentine's Day an extra special event for you!

OMEGA

Name: Omega
Model: Projec 2.3
Planet of Origin: Boturnia
Age: 6
Special abilities: Holographic projection

Omega is a theme park robot, working at the largest amusement park on Boturnia. He has a special holographic projection system and can turn into any character you want. He also performs an impersonation show, where he turns into some of the most popular singers and dancers in the galaxy. Unfortunately, his projection system only works in the amusement park. When he leaves the facility, his projections look like purple monsters.

TACO

Name: Taco
Model: E.A.T. 33
Planet of Origin: Salsa
Age: 8
Special abilities: Making scrumptious ice cream

Taco is a food dispensing robot who can create the food of any planet with the touch of a button. She works at the Doralora Intergalactic School in the canteen, and the kids there love all the different types of food she serves. The most popular food she makes is Salsian chocolate ice cream, which is sparkly and pops in your mouth.

MARVEL

Name: Marvel
Model: Brighty 7
Planet of Origin: Solaris 8
Age: 3
Special abilities: Running very fast

Marvel is a sun-rotator robot. His job is very important as he has to keep the sun in his galaxy spinning. He does this by running around in circles inside the sun like a hamster in a cage. Brighty 7 bots are specially designed to be heat resistant and self-charging. Without Brighty 7 bots like Marvel, the entire universe would be dark!

KOKO

Name: Koko
Model: Puck 2
Planet of Origin: Hocktar
Age: 8
Special abilities: Saving goals

Koko is a sports star! He plays goalie in the intergalactic space hockey league for the league champions the Hocktar Comets. The Comets have defeated every other robot team in the galaxy, and Koko was voted MVP for his amazing saves. However, he does have a design flaw that his opponents haven't realised yet - he can only move from left to right, not forward and backwards which makes getting off the rink slightly awkward!

UNO

Name: UNO
Model: Debatabot 2.1
Planet of Origin: Balanx
Age: 8
Special abilities: Yelling "UNO!!" very loudly

UNO stands for Ultra Noisy Opponent and is part of the Debatabot series. Debatabots are good at arguing, and often work as lawyer's assistants. Unfortunately, problems with UNO's last upgrade means that now he only wants to play the card game UNO and likes to shout "UNO!" all the time, even when he hasn't won.

ARVY

Name: Arvy
Model: BRB 1.0
Planet of Origin: Vothia
Age: 10
Special abilities: Super reader

Arvy is a book review bot who's job it is to read all the books in the galaxy and review them. If you want to know if a book is good, you can ask Arvy and he will tell you! You can find BRB bots like Arvy at all good bookstores and libraries. While the customers love them, librarians hate them because when they find a book they really, really like, they shoot confetti everywhere in celebration, making a big mess.
